پروفیسر عارفہ بشری

صدر شعبہ اردو

The purpose of the two day National Urdu Congress on language, literature and society organised by the Department of Urdu, University of Kashmir is to provide a platform for dialogue in an interdisciplinary perspective, general discussion, literary criticism and exchange of new information among the participants and open a pathway towards further research and developmental aspects. Also this is an endeavour of the department to provide an opportunity to faculty members and prospective scholars to enrich themselves with the various aspects of the areas of language, literature and society in current research environment. The two day Urdu congress would surely be a proclamation for the further research and development of the Urdu language which is need of the hour.
