Allama Iqbal Library, University of Kashmir is going to organize Library Meet on 29th October, 2024 to create a suitable way to engage and get in touch with the alumni and peers of the library and share their professional and personal experiences with the participants. The aim is to connect the university with former professionals who had been part of the university. In this regard, former Librarians, Deputy Librarians, Assistant Librarians, and Professional Assistants have been invited to share their experiences with the budding professionals. Furthermore, university pass-outs from the different Departments/ Centers/ Directorates (who have utilized the library as scholars/ students/ temporary members and others) are also invited to register themselves for the event and give us an opportunity to act as a professional networking platform.

The registration details are specified below. Due to the confined participant number (60), the registration shall be on first-cum-first serve basis.

Venue: Ibn Khaldun Auditorium, Allama Iqbal Library
